

IAS Newsletter - November 2025

Hello!

We are very busy in the IAS office this term, and cannot believe we are heading into the last few weeks of the term.

A quiet month in terms of the newsletter so we have provided a round up of some workshops available. As always, we are looking to find out what information sessions, you'd like us to run. We have our online session at least once a term regarding applying for an Education Health Care Needs Assessment. What else would you like information sessions on? Do you want a drop in coffee morning where you can meet other parents and carers, a session on ERSAs with the Educational Psychology service, a session around Alternative Provision, - please send your suggestions to Millie via ias@rbwm.gov.uk

Best wishes,

Donna, Jean, Kate and Millie
